Synopsis:

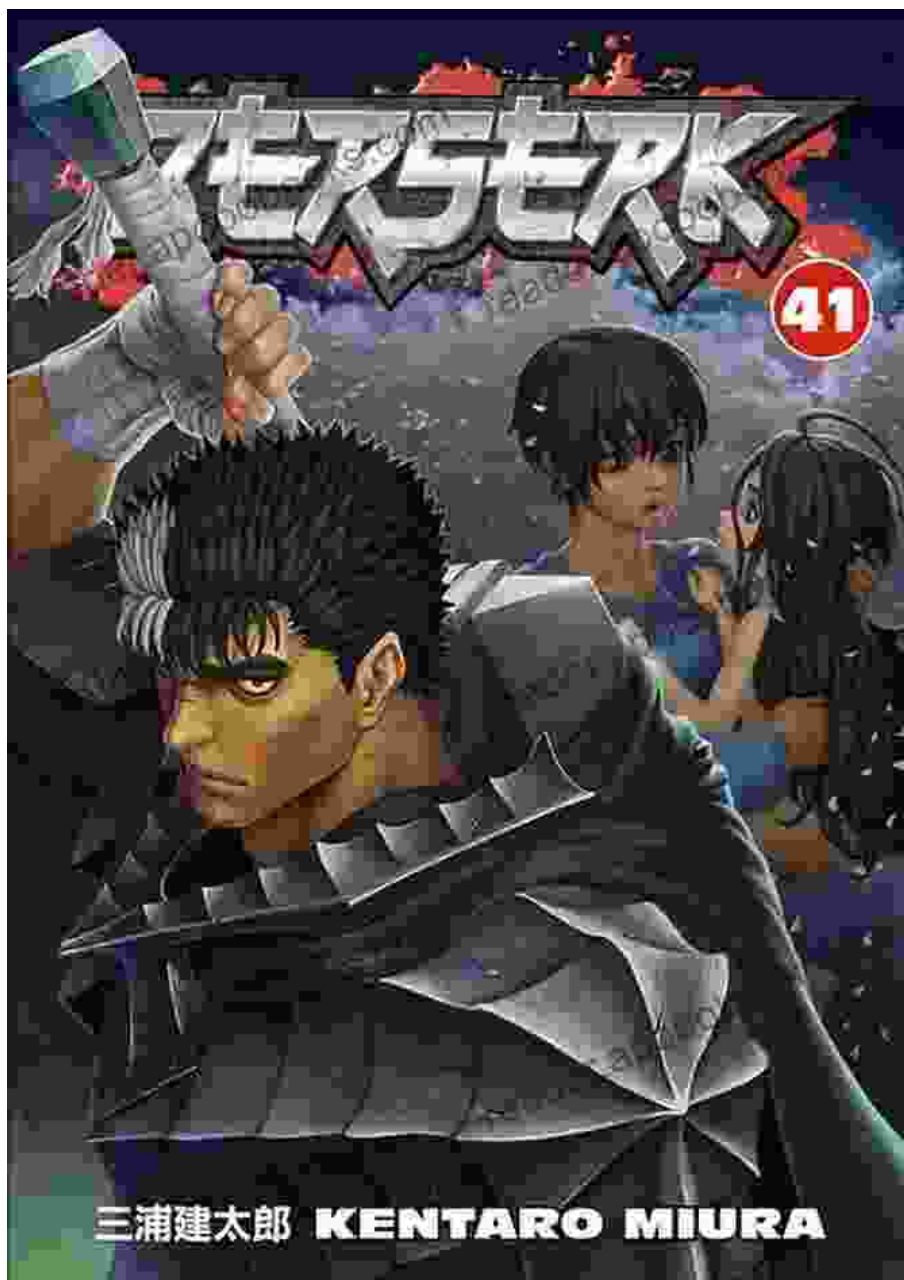

In the aftermath of the Eclipse, Guts and his companions struggle to come to terms with their losses. Griffith has ascended to godhood and now rules over the world as the Femto. Guts, consumed by rage and a thirst for vengeance, sets out on a perilous journey to confront his former friend and reclaim what was taken from him. Along the way, he encounters new allies and faces formidable foes, all while grappling with the darkness that threatens to consume him.

Review:

Berserk Volume 41 is a masterpiece of dark fantasy that will haunt and captivate readers. Kentaro Miura's storytelling is masterful, expertly weaving together themes of violence, redemption, and the human condition. The artwork is breathtaking, with stunningly detailed illustrations that bring the characters and world to life. This volume is a must-read for fans of the series and newcomers alike.
