

How To Mediate School Conflicts And Keep Students Learning: A Guide to Creating a Peaceful and Productive Learning Environment

Every school wants to be a place where students feel safe, respected, and supported. But even in the best schools, conflicts can and do arise. When conflicts are not handled effectively, they can disrupt learning, damage relationships, and create a hostile environment for everyone.

That's where mediation comes in. Mediation is a process in which a neutral third party helps disputing parties reach a mutually acceptable agreement. Mediation can be used to resolve a wide range of conflicts, including:
