

Roberto Galli: The Little Gnome Percussion Quartet

In the heart of a magical forest, there lived four gnomes who loved to play music. There was Timpani, the leader of the quartet, with his big, booming drums. Cymbal, the smallest of the group, played the high-pitched cymbals. Snare, the steady beat-keeper, played the snare drum. And finally, there was Bass, the biggest and strongest of the group, who played the bass drum.
