The Letter is a beautiful and heartbreaking love story set against the backdrop of World War II. It is a story of love, loss, and the power of the human spirit.

The novel begins in 1940, as the war is raging in Europe. Sarah and Jack are young and in love, but their happiness is short-lived. Jack is soon drafted into the army and sent to fight overseas.

Sarah is heartbroken, but she knows that Jack would want her to be strong. She vows to wait for him, no matter how long it takes.

The war rages on for years, and Sarah and Jack are separated by thousands of miles. But they stay in touch through letters. These letters are a lifeline for both of them, a way to stay connected despite the distance and the danger.

In 1944, Jack is killed in action. Sarah is devastated, but she knows that she must go on. She has Jack's memory to keep her strong.

Years later, Sarah discovers a letter that Jack wrote to her shortly before he died. The letter is full of love and longing, and it gives Sarah the closure she has been searching for.

The Letter is a beautifully written and deeply moving story. It is a story that will stay with you long after you finish reading it.
